CAREER DEVELOPMENT & EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING

It is never too late, or too early, to start building your experience.

The Career Development team is here to help you build bridges between the classroom and the world of work. Our main goal is to assist students and recent alumni to prepare for post-graduate employment by providing programs and resources designed to assist you with career planning, job search strategies, resume writing, interview preparation, and more.

Find Your Path experience.uwindsor.ca

YOUR CAREER PLANNING GUIDE

A solid career plan will help to ensure you develop the skills and gain the experience you need to be on the right track to the career and lifestyle you want.

This is a fluid, dynamic, and continuous process. As you come to new decision points, you may return to an earlier stage in the cycle. It is also possible to be moving through multiple cycles simultaneously, like looking for a summer job while planning for your long-term career.

ASSESS YOURSELF

STAGE

- Analyze your interests, skills, values, personality, and strengths and begin to relate them to your educational and career plans.
- Consider what type of lifestyle you want and how it relates to your work.

APPOINTMENTS:

CAREER EXPLORATION PROGRAM

If you are struggling to find a career path that is right for you, looking to become more aware of occupations related to your field, or in need of goal-oriented career planning, participate in this multi-session series of appointments for thorough support and guidance from a career consultant.

Register for an intake appointment to get started.

NEW

CAREER PLANNING AND WHAT CAN I DO WITH MY DEGREE?

Discuss what kinds of careers you can go into with your major and some viable long-term plans based on your interests, aptitudes, and academic profile.

INTEREST/CAREER ASSESSMENT INITIAL APPOINTMENT

Learn more about your interests, skills, and values and how to link them to possible careers. Investigate what options are out there in the world of work and gain answers to common career questions like, "What can I do with my major?" and "Where am I going with my career?" Work with a career advisor to develop a plan for how to get there.

WORKSHOP

CAREER INTEREST ASSESSMENT

Unsure of your career or degree options?

Complete the most widely used career interest assessment to gain insight into your career interests and match them with occupations and educational options in this interactive workshop. Explore nearly 300 occupations using the Strong Interest Inventory with the guidance of a career advisor.

"Find out what you like doing best, and get someone to pay you for it."

- Katharine Whitehorn

EXPLORE CAREERS

STAGE

- Identify and research careers that interest you and explore trends by looking at the labour market.
- Meet with people working in jobs or companies that interest you to get a feel for their work.
- Get involved in the community to build your interests, skills, and contacts.

EXPAND SKILLS

STAGE

- Build your skills, knowledge, and reputation by gaining valuable experience through working, volunteering, joining clubs, or participating in experiential learning opportunities.
- Consider pursuing further education to develop skills specific to the career you want.

APPOINTMENTS:

CONSIDERING FURTHER EDUCATION

Discuss the various options that may exist and explore things you may want to consider when determining program options. If you already intend to apply for additional schooling, you can discuss tips for your application materials or have your personal statement reviewed.

INTERVIEW PREP FOR PROFESSIONAL/GRADUATE SCHOOL

Do you have an admission interview coming up for Medicine, Law, Dentistry, Pharmacy, Physical Therapy, etc...? Learn how to prepare for school entrance interviews and effectively discuss your skills and experience related to your program of choice.

University of Windsor

EXPERIENCE MAPS

The University of Windsor has created experience maps, tailored to your field(s) of study, to help guide you towards your personal career objectives. These maps are meant to help you explore the various experiential learning opportunities available to you, throughout the course of your UWindsor experience.

Pick up your Experience Map at the Office of Career Development & Experiential Learning (JEC 100) or visit: uwindsor.ca/experiencemaps to download a digital version.

GRADUATE & PROFESSIONAL SCHOOLS FAIR

SEPTEMBER 24 - 11AM - 3PM

Speak with representatives from academic institutions to learn more about masters and PHD programs, law school, teacher education, pharmacy, medical programs, post-graduate certificate programs, MBA's and much more.

See p. 14 for more information about Fair Week!

MARKET YOURSELF + FIND A JOB

- Network with professionals working in your desired field.
- Build your personal brand and develop an effective cover letter and resume.
- Learn about and develop job search techniques to build an effective strategy to find your next opportunity.

APPOINTMENTS:

INTERVIEW PREP

This half-hour career advising appointment gives you the opportunity to discuss strategies and best practices with a knowledgeable, objective party ahead of your interview.

MOCK INTERVIEW

After completing an Interview Prep appointment, you can schedule an in-person mock interview with a member of the Career Development team. A one hour mock interview gives you an opportunity to practice interviewing with a trained professional who is well versed in the job interview process.

COVER LETTER AND RESUME

Guidance and tips will be provided on the purpose of a resume/cover letter, how they are viewed by potential employers, and the construction and formatting of an eye catching, industry specific resume.

CURRICULUM VITAE

Guidance and tips will be provided on the purpose of a CV, when to use one, and the construction and formatting of an eye catching CV for applying to opportunities in academia and research.

JOB SEARCH TECHNIQUES

Receive information on effective job search techniques. Learn how to identify employment goals, match skills and experience, research and access employer information, and develop a personalized job search plan that gets results.

LINKEDIN PROFILE CRITIQUE

LinkedIn can be a powerful tool for networking and connecting with job opportunities. Review your LinkedIn profile with a career advisor and receive guidance and tips on how to enhance it and increase your chances of impressing employers and recruiters in your desired field.

PERSONAL STATEMENTS AND LETTERS OF INTENT

Learn more about graduate and professional schools and the purpose of preparing a written personal statement or letter of intent as a part of the application process. Explore what needs to go into the documents and gain an understanding of how to tailor your work to the specific program. Have your statement reviewed for content, style, and professionalism.

VIP-Community Service Learning

VIP-CSL participants work with local community partners to have an impact on their community while gaining skills and experience for their future careers. Service learners will apply discipline specific knowledge while addressing community need. In addition to serving a minimum of 40 community hours, students will also complete a series of short professional development activities both online and in-person. This opportunity will take place during a single semester and is co-curricular (in addition to your academic courses).
