

Centre for Career Education Beliefs:

- Students must invest in their own career development
- Learning from experience is a fundamental element of a broad-based education and contributes to the development of a successful career path
- It is important to teach students to manage a lifetime of career opportunities
- We must take a proactive approach to career leadership and learning centredness
- Strong campus, community and corporate partnerships are essential to our success