GUIDELINES

The Faculty of Education, University of Windsor and Lambton College reaffirm the principle and policy of fairness and equity for individuals who are qualified for the teaching profession and who reflect the ethno-cultural and social diversity of the population of students in Ontario's schools. In pursuit of this principle and policy, we seek to identify candidates with backgrounds and perspectives, which will diversify and enrich the teaching and learning community. Applications are encouraged from individuals from groups that are traditionally under-represented in the teaching profession. If you believe you belong to one of these groups, please complete this form.

1. Statements must be prepared in your own words without professional assistance.
2. Use only the space allocated for Parts I & II. Any additional pages will be removed before the application is read.
3. Statements submitted that have not been signed by you will not be read.
4. Ensure that your completed form is attached to your Applicant Profile and received in the Faculty of Education, University of Windsor, by 4:15 p.m. E.S.T., April 30, 2010 Faxed copies are not acceptable.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PART II: PERSONAL STATEMENT

In the space provided below, submit a personal statement in which you identify the specific aspect from the first paragraph under which you are seeking equitable consideration. State how your educational experiences and background and/or the advantages and disadvantages you experienced will make you an excellent candidate for our program. Your personal statement should, in addition, speak to important teacher selection criteria such as leadership, determination, motivation, maturity, coping ability, and communication skills. Above all, the personal statement should reflect a realistic self-appraisal. An interview may be held to make a final decision.
