

The Finance Department acknowledges our mission is to support the academic community in the achievement of their mission. As service providers, Finance aims to support the decision making processes across campus at all levels. The development of sound, practical policies and procedures coupled with the timely delivery of accurate, user-friendly financial information will ensure that the long term financial position of the institution is sound.