

University of Windsor
Daily News – Monday, January 18, 2010

Conference an educational experience for student engineers

UWindsor President Alan Wildeman welcomes an enthusiastic group of engineering students to town Thursday. The 30th annual national student conference of the Institute of Industrial Engineers brought delegates from schools across Canada to Windsor on the weekend.

Attendees also heard a keynote address from Marc Garneau, Member of Parliament for the riding of Westmount-Ville Marie and the first Canadian in space.