

PHILOSOPHY

Philosophy enables us to reflect on questions of who we are and how we should live. It is crucial to intelligent decision making in all spheres of life. Students of philosophy have made important contributions to life across the spectrum of occupations. Studying philosophy provides you with advanced reading, writing, and critical skills that open many doors.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Our program is recognized for excellence in teaching and research and has an international reputation for work in informal logic and argumentation theory. Our faculty members are at the forefront of research into the roots of environmental problems, the possibility of artificial intelligence, women's struggle for equality, and the future of democracy and a rational society.

STUDENT SUPPORT

We have a small, friendly department that provides ample opportunity for student-teacher interaction. The student-run philosophy club allows students to interact with one another. Visiting speakers bring faculty, students and the public together with members of the broader philosophical community.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Minimum admission average of 70%. Ontario Secondary School graduates require six Grade 12 U or M courses, including ENG4U.

FINANCIAL AID

For entrance and in-course award opportunities, please visit our Award Search at my.uwindsor.ca. Click on the Financial Matters heading and then Search for Awards in the sidebar.

In addition to entrance awards, the Outstanding Scholars Program attracts top high school students entering any first-year honours undergraduate program at the University of Windsor. Approximately 100 high-achieving, first-year students will be offered status as an Outstanding Scholars Candidate in Year 1 of their studies. The goal of this program is to challenge and stimulate students by providing them with the unique opportunity of holding an undergraduate academic appointment in their second year of studies and beyond where students will work closely with faculty on academic research projects.
