Highlights and Skills

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Drama H C Come develop your creativity in our drama program where you'll get training for a career in the theatre. Choose a concentration in performance, history and theory, design/technical theatre, or a combination of two, or all three. First-year students get hands-on training behind the scenes. Students love this program so much many go on to graduate school for further learning and specialization.

MIN. AVG.* 70% ONTARIO COURSE REQUIREMENTS EN4U required.

Drama in Education and Community (Applied Theatre) H Join one of Canada's most unique undergraduate programs involving drama. It's perfect for students who are interested in performance and teaching with aspirations to use drama as a vehicle to empower others. With a focus on practical learning, you will develop presentations, performances and workshops around pressing social issues. Work in schools, art galleries, museums, hospitals, senior citizen residences and multicultural organizations. You can follow this up with our consecutive education degree program and become qualified to teach at any grade level or pursue graduate studies in a complimentary discipline.

MIN. AVG.* 70% ONTARIO COURSE REQUIREMENTS EN4U required.

Drama (BA) C /Concurrent Education (BEd) TThe classroom will be your stage with this intensive program that will make you eligible to teach drama in grades 7 to 12. This concurrent program is hands-on, giving you opportunities to practice drama as a vehicle for learning and teaching. Put the theory you've learned into practice through field experience.

MIN AVG.* 75% ONTARIO COURSE REQUIREMENTS ENG4U required.

C General - 3-year program H Honours - 4-year program C Combined Honours programs available * Minimum grade point average for admission to program. A higher average may be required.

*In pursuit of Equity and Accessibility, we encourage student applications from designated groups: persons who are Indigenous (FNMI), racialized, women, LGBTQ+ and persons with disabilities. - Speaking persuasively and articulately to convey a variety of project goals and occasion desired reactions in audience members
- Collaborating in the production of knowledge within the studio and classroom in a participatory, active process of exchange which links both theory and practice.
- Articulating the interrelationship between the various disciplines of theatre production (performance, direction, creation, management, and design)
- Becoming a full theatre practitioner, versed in practical elements of theatre production, as well as the ways of applying theatre and performance studies to life and work, supporting personal goals, contributing to the field, and benefitting the community during the program and after graduation.
- Applying the basic skills and theoretical practices involved in design for the theatre
- Applying principles and elements of design to create effective solutions to design challenges

Build your Skills and Experience

Your UWindsor experience is more than attending classes. It is a combination of academics, co-curricular activities, and extracurricular involvement. By making the most of all three elements of your university experience, you will maximize your opportunities to build your skills, broaden your personal network, and clarify your long term academic and career goals.

CURRICULUM

Courses of study specific to each program

CO-CURRICULAR

Activities and experiences that complement coursework (Outstanding Scholars, peer mentoring, VIP)

EXTRACURRICULAR

Activities falling outside the scope of set curriculum (Part-time job, clubs, volunteering, athletics)

Career Planning Cycle

Intentional career planning will help you prepare for your next step after graduation and beyond. It is a fluid, dynamic, and lifelong process. You can move on or return to an earlier stage in the cycle at any time.

Life After Graduation

My experience at the University of Windsor helped to build a diverse set of skills, including adaptability, organization, and communication, that have helped me in my career. It provided me with the professional experience required to be able to begin my career in theatre management right out of University. The level of care and support provided by the faculty and staff at UWindsor allowed me to feel confident in taking risks and to be open to taking new paths. Windsor is really a hidden gem in drama and theatre education in Ontario.”

Corey Palmer – BA in Drama in Education and Community
BEd in Education
