The successful candidate will have:

- (i) Appropriate education qualifications as normally evidenced by a Ph.D. (preferably in Social Work), or in a relevant discipline and a Master of Social Work degree
- (ii) A record of successful teaching at the University level.

All Candidates should include the following (failure to include these items may affect the evaluation outcomes):

- A brief statement that explains how the applicant's teaching and research background prepares her/him to teach this particular course
- A previous syllabus related to the subject matter or a sample syllabus of the advertised course
- A statement of teaching philosophy and interests (teaching dossier) as well as evidence of impact on student outcomes (which can include student feedback and ratings such as student perceptions of teaching or SPTs)

New Applications should also include the following (If candidate has previously taught at U of Windsor review Article 54:08 [b]) :

- Letter of application, including statement of citizenship/immigration status
- A current curriculum vitae (for the Faculty Association template click here: <https://www.wufa.ca/article-131/schedule-a-curriculum-vitae-form>)
- Three current letters of reference sent directly by the referee to cepe@uwindsor.ca
- Evidence of qualifications (e.g. certification of degrees, dissertation, thesis topic)
- Provide a list of all courses taught

Candidates who have previously taught at the University in the past two (2) years (article 54:08 [a]) and have submitted their written statement of interest by March 1 annually shall be considered for all courses to which they are qualified to teach. Those who have taught previously at the University shall not be required to complete the application form or supply letters of recommendation for each reappointment (article 54:08 [b]).
