

Central Academic Advising Services

Services Provided

Central Academic Advising provides the following information to students:

- Changing a major or program, adding a minor, concentration or specialization
- An orientation of students' Academic Progress Report and degree requirements
- Providing explanations of academic policies and procedures
- Assist with Course planning
- Reviewing academic progress
- Developing academic success plans
- Assessment of student needs and referrals to other campus services

Five things all Instructors should know about Central Academic Advising

- Advisors are up top date on all institutional policies and procedures – a great resource for faculty
- Advisors are trained in student development theory and can help identify some of the roadblocks students face
- Advisors have a thorough knowledge of student services on campus
- Advisors specialize in helping transfer students settle into their new environment
- Advisors are specialists in the first-year experience

Contact Information

uwindsor.ca/advising	advising@uwindsor.ca	ext. 1414
Dr. Chris O’Gorman	cogorman@uwindsor.ca	ext. 3950
Dr. Denis Tetreault	deniskt@uwindsor.ca	ext. 3409

Office of the Registrar Forms

Course Add Form
Examination Schedule
Diploma Reprints

Other Academic Support

Skills to Enhance Personal Success (STEPS)
Writing Support Desk
Important Academic Dates

Other Helpful Resources

Student Awards and Scholarships
Cashier’s Fee Estimator
Academic Probation/Required to Withdraw
Grading and Calculation of Averages – Senate Policy