

Executive Search & Workplace Solutions

DUAL CAREER PROGRAM

Relocation is a difficult decision for an employee and their family. At Logic Executive Search and Workplace Solutions we look to make this transition as seamless as possible. Helping the relocating partner with developing community connections, job search support, local market landscape and peer network to help support the positive integration of the family into the community.

Resources that Work

The most important asset of any organization is its people. When employers invest in the professional and personal development of new or relocated hires and their families, the returns are multifaceted and enduring. Our program resources include:

Connection

Strategic networking and professional connection opportunities

Career

Career guidance and support in navigating the local job market including resume writing and job search strategies

Community

Resources that help employees and their families to feel at home in their community
