

New Faculty Orientation – Getting Started: What You Need to Know as an Instructor (Some Useful Scenarios)
(Session focused mostly on Senate bylaws/policies – with a smattering of other policies/agreements)

[Responses to many of the situations below relate primarily to undergraduate courses. There is more flexibility with graduate courses, with the exception of the minimum requirements for the course syllabus]

A. Course Planning – Creating Your Syllabus

You need to write your course syllabus to be distributed by the first day of classes. Bylaw 51 (1.2-1.3) sets out the minimum requirements for your undergraduate course syllabus. Paragraphs 1.4-1.10 also set out rules and conditions around academic evaluations, which are to inform your course syllabus. In addition to specific requirements, the bylaw stipulates that the course syllabus must include any other matters as mandated by University, Senate or Faculty policy. Office hours are to be included in the course syllabus as per Faculty Collective Agreement 5:25(j).

Refer to the bylaw/policy sections provided, as well as the Learning-Centred Syllabus Checklist (created by CTL in consultation with the University Secretariat) to respond to the following questions.

NB: Bylaws and policies often refer to first-entry undergraduate programs, which means all undergraduate programs, with the exception of Law and Education. Law and Education are second-entry undergraduate programs.
