

Contact Dr. Lance Rappaport,
Ph.D. C.Psych. at Lmr@uwindsor.ca with questions or for more information.

This course will survey cutting edge developments, discoveries, and controversies in research on psychopathology.

Topics will include psychiatric and psychological phenomenology, epidemiology, etiology, and treatment.

Lectures will integrate in class discussion with international guest experts in psychopathology domains, such as anxiety disorders, eating disorders, and treatment.

Throughout the semester, students will develop their own area of interest through a guided, individualized review of the scientific literature.