GRADUATE FACULTY STATUS: PROFESSORS EMERITI

Eligibility to Supervise (as taken from the Policy on Graduate Faculty Designation)

Professors Emeriti supervising graduate students at the time of their retirement may maintain Full status until their current students complete their degree. Should they wish to take on new graduate students it will be as a co-supervisor in anticipation of appointment to Affiliate status when the current students complete their degree. Professors Emeriti not supervising graduate students at the time of their retirement will be transitioned to Affiliate status. Professors Emeriti may retain full status with the recommendation of the Dean and/or designate.
