MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Graduates,

I want to wish you my heartfelt congratulations on all of your accomplishments at the University of Windsor. And to officially welcome you into the graduating Class of 2021.

I also say this knowing it includes the best wishes of every one of the faculty, staff and fellow students who contributed to your achievements during the time you spent at the University. To reach this point in your life, you've worked very hard, and your determination and dedication have paid off. Celebrating Convocation is proof that you've succeeded. That's why your University of Windsor family is so proud - and yes, excited - that we have been able to provide you with a virtual Convocation this spring - despite the uncertain and often difficult times we've faced this year and continue to deal with. It's not the traditional Convocation that we'd all rather be taking part in, but we do hope our virtual event means that your family, your friends and those people who have been instrumental in helping you reach this milestone in your life can share in your accomplishments.

Our virtual Convocation has also given you the opportunity to share this special time with many other of our graduates from across the globe. The University of Windsor Class of 2021 includes over 4,400 graduates. And all of you will be joining an Alumni family that now numbers nearly 150,000. Now it's time to move forward and take the confidence and experiences you've forged at the University of Windsor with you. You are ready to make a significant and lasting impact on your community and your country - wherever you may be. We are so proud of you, and we cannot wait to see how your stories unfold from here.

And here's something you can count on - All of us at the University of Windsor will be thinking of you in the days ahead. And if you need us, we'll be here for you.

Congratulations,

Rob Gordon, PhD, BSc, MSc

CONVOCATION AT THE UNIVERSITY OF WINDSOR

The University of Windsor, like all North American universities, is a product of medieval Europe. The structure of a university has remained unchanged from its emergence in Paris and Bologna in the late twelfth century. The ceremony of Convocation (the calling-together of an academic assembly) is replete with reflections of this medieval background.

THE MACE

The mace is a staff symbolizing authority. In days of knighthood, it was a weapon, but after the sixteenth century, it became solely a symbol of authority carried by a distinguished member of the assembly or, as in our case, the faculty.

The mace represents continuity and stability in an ever-changing world. The Mace-bearer or Beadle symbolically ensures order. Our Mace-bearer carries the mace in the Convocation procession preceding the Chancellor and the President and Vice-Chancellor.

KATRINA BAHNAM: PRESIDENT'S MEDAL

*K*atrina Bahnam is a rare and exceptional person. She is a shining role model for other students who seek to balance stellar academic achievements alongside leadership, community advocacy, and a high level of dedication to those in need of support around them.

Katrina became an Outstanding Scholar in the Fall semester of 2018, one of the top 3% of students in her class. She entered the elite Law and Politics program and has successfully raised her GPA to almost 93% since her first year – a challenging feat when considering her many leadership and volunteer contributions.

Katrina's research work in Outstanding Scholars focused for many semesters on the project "Feminizing Party Difference" with Dr. Cheryl Collier. Later she worked with Dr. John Sutcliffe on the project "Citizen Engagement in Municipal Decision Making." Katrina researched with Dr. Sutcliffe the impact of COVID-19 on municipal transportation.

Katrina's on-campus contributions have been many and diverse, but they all connect in expressing her values. Katrina has been an undergraduate teaching assistant and has volunteered for many other on-campus positions, such as an Outstanding Scholars Peer Mentor, FAHSS Political Science Mentor, and a welcome weekly coordinator on the LEAD team in the Student Success and Leadership Centre. Moreover, Katrina has been recognized for a wide range of community and university-level charity achievements in Windsor-Essex over the past four years. Her community activities are diverse in focus, but they are further evidence of her outstanding leadership and strong desire to make a difference for those less fortunate.

Despite this broad range of contributions both on- and off-campus, Katrina has remained a humble and unassuming person who is genuinely grateful for her opportunities at the University of Windsor. Her compassionate care for others is a commitment that connects all her activities – her research, employment, and extracurricular paid and volunteer work.

We confidently predict that Katrina will help make the world a more just, equitable, and caring place, and we are so proud and happy to celebrate her contributions with this award.

GRACE ALYSA SONJA MCLEOD: GOVERNOR GENERAL'S SILVER MEDAL

*M*any of the faculty have known Grace since she entered the Bachelor of Science in Nursing program. From the first year of the program, Grace has held impressive academic achievements, including being on the Dean's list and President's Honour Roll each year. However, Grace's talents go beyond her passion for knowledge.

She has strong leadership and mentoring skills, as demonstrated in the clinical setting and as a peer mentor in the Simulation Lab.

Grace has been instrumental in facilitating students in each year of the program work through various simulation scenarios, impacting the growth of their critical thinking and clinical judgement skills.

Grace has demonstrated initiative and commitment to the nursing program through her participation in multiple committees and student events.

She has been a pillar on the recruitment and curriculum committees. She provides an invaluable student perspective that assists future students and the faculty in making decisions.

Nursing faculty can attest to the many attributes that Grace has to earn The Governor General's Silver Medal, but the one that makes her stand out is her passion for the nursing profession. She brings to nursing, caring, compassion, and a strong work ethic.

As a graduate of the Faculty of Nursing, she will continue to be a true asset to nursing. As one of her nursing professors summarizes her thoughts about Grace with "I am proud to call her my colleague."

The Governor General's Silver Medal is awarded to the undergraduate honours program graduating student deemed to be the most outstanding in their field. In relation to their graduating peers.

BOARD OF GOVERNORS’ MEDALS

2021 ALUMNI AWARD FOR DISTINGUISHED CONTRIBUTIONS TO UNIVERSITY TEACHING

115TH SPRING 2021

Convocation

Dr. Dora Cavallo-Medved

Dr. Dora Cavallo-Medved, a cell biologist in the Faculty of Science, shares her love of science with numerous University of Windsor students. Her approachable manner with students and her belief in making strong classroom connections, has contributed to the personal growth, success and self-confidence of Dr. Cavallo-Medved's students.

Known for her devotion to teaching and research, Dr. Cavallo-Medved's positive work has spread throughout campus. She works collaboratively with other faculties and students in a variety of disciplines. No matter the program, Dr. Cavallo-Medved can engage and excite students with her own passion for science and learning.

As one of Dr. Cavallo-Medved's colleagues says: "she goes above and beyond to enhance the student experience, to embrace our local community in academic learning and to facilitate the growth of our programs and faculty professional development."

Congratulations Dr. Cavallo-Medved!

Prof. Jasminka Kalajdzic

Professor Jasminka Kalajdzic, from the Faculty of Law, is a scholar and expert in class actions in Canada. Professor Kalajdzic has put University of Windsor students at the forefront of her vast work. In 2019, she established Canada's first-class actions clinic located in Windsor Hall. The clinic relies primarily on students to provide advice about specific lawsuits and class actions to the public.

Professor Kalajdzic's passion for teaching and mentoring students can be seen in many ways. She regularly coaches students in the annual Moot competition against other Canadian law school teams. She also developed a cross-jurisdictional course on comparative class actions which allowed students to collaborate across several countries through technology.

Most important, Professor Kalajdzic's teaching philosophy mirrors her impact on Faculty of Law students. "I believe people are their best when they know they are valued," Professor Kalajdzic says. "Ultimately, I hope to teach students about the importance of caring about their clients..."

Congratulations Professor Kalajdzic!

Dr. Victoria Paraschak

Dr. Victoria Paraschak's creative, innovative and caring approach to teaching has helped develop the strengths of her students as leaders and professionals. A professor in the Department of Kinesiology, Dr. Paraschak's approach to teaching in the university environment is often cited as one of the things that contribute to her stellar reputation and impact on students.

Dr. Paraschak is lauded for her passion for aboriginal and marginalized peoples as well as her constant encouragement of students to think outside the box, debate and research. One of her students says that Dr. Paraschak's "teaching style was supportive, challenging and student centered with an open-door policy for further discussion and questions. Her efforts towards teaching each student encouraged me to work to my best ability during my undergraduate years."

Dr. Paraschak's Outdoor Recreation class is known across campus for the important opportunity it offers for skills development and leadership opportunities. As one of Dr. Paraschak's colleagues says, "She is a teacher, a leader, a role model and a mentor."

Congratulations Dr. Paraschak!

Prof. Sigi Torinus

Professor Sigi Torinus in the School of Creative Arts has enhanced the lives of numerous art students and has positively impacted their creative and professional endeavours. An expert specializing in the area of Integrated Media, Professor Torinus shares her passion for art through the creation of a personal, connected classroom that allows students to reach their highest potential. Professor Torinus says she believes in "active, experience-based learning and maintaining a lively and interactive classroom, changing delivery methods and including the students as much as possible in disseminating information."

Students and colleagues remark on Professor Torinus' dedication to teaching. One student says that through the mentorship of Professor Torinus she "learned that being an artist meant that" she is on a "continuous journey of self-exploration and self-expression." Many students credit Professor Torinus for building their confidence and helping them to find their place in the professional world of art. "She encouraged her students to take risks, get messy...and to find our voices as artists."

Congratulations Professor Torinus!

MYRA TAWFIK: DISTINGUISHED UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR

PRESENTER: DR. LAVERNE JACOBS

Professor Tawfik is an innovative teacher and an exceptional researcher. She is a nationally and internationally renowned scholar and thought leader in copyright law and capacity-building in intellectual property (IP) for a global innovation economy.

Myra Tawfik has a broad national and international reputation for her scholarship and professional accomplishments.

She has developed a long and impressive list of research areas over the twenty-eight years that she has been a faculty member at the University of Windsor.

She is a leader in research in capacity-building in IP for an innovation economy, copyright history, and copyright generally, including comparative and international copyright.

In addition, she plays a distinctly influential role in advancing public policy at both the provincial and federal levels. It is a rare and distinct honour in the life of a law professor to be involved in the development of government public policy.

Professor Tawfik is one of the earliest clinical and experiential learning professors at the University of Windsor, Faculty of Law.

Motivated by an interest to ensure students' professional competence and the desire to ground abstract (legal) concepts in real-world experience, she is deeply involved in the design of clinical and experiential learning methods for students.

Lastly, from her career trajectory, one can see that Professor Tawfik has shown leadership in many ways. However, it is essential to note that Professor Tawfik is also a strong leader at the University of Windsor through her service.

She has been Acting Dean for the Faculty of Law on two occasions (2011 and 2017).

In addition, she served as Associate Dean from 1998-2000.

We are proud to recognize Professor Myra Tawfik as our next Distinguished University Professor!
