- 4:01 Whereas the parties agree that there will be no discrimination or harassment consistent with the provisions of the Ontario Human Rights Code and all other applicable legislation;
- Whereas the parties agree that all employees are obligated to interact on the basis of mutual respect and any form of harassment, sexual harassment or discrimination will not be tolerated;
- Whereas the parties reaffirm faith in fundamental human rights and in the dignity and worth of the human person:
- The parties are committed to providing a discrimination and harassment-free workplace.
- (a) Discrimination
Discrimination is defined as a distinction, whether intentional or not, based on grounds relating to personal characteristics of an individual or group, which has the effect of imposing burdens, obligations, or disadvantages on such individual or group not imposed upon others, or which withholds or limits access to opportunities, benefits, and advantages available to other members of society.
- The parties agree that there shall be no discrimination, interference, restriction or coercion exercised or practiced with respect to any employee in any matter on the basis of race, creed, colour, age, sex (including pregnancy, gender identity, gender expression), marital status, family status, ancestry, place of origin, citizenship, place of residence, political or religious affiliation or beliefs, sexual orientation, same sex partnership status, receipt of public assistance, record of offences, disability, nor by reason of Union membership or activity.

(b) Harassment

Harassment is defined as:

- (i) vexatious comment or conduct in relation to a person or group of persons which has the effect or purpose of creating a hostile or intimidating working or educational environment when such treatment has the effect or purpose of threatening or intimidating a person;

Harassment may occur during one incident, or over a series of incidents including those which, in isolation, would not necessarily constitute harassment. Harassment prevents or impairs the full and equal enjoyment of employment and education services, benefits and/or opportunities and may occur between people of the same or different status within the University community, regardless of age or sex. Harassment may also be directed at a group as well as at an individual. Harassment may be psychological, verbal, physical, and visual or may be all of these and may include, but not limited to, bullying, intimidating or offensive jokes or innuendoes, displaying or circulating offensive or intimidating phone calls.

Harassment does not include appropriate direction, delegation, or discipline, administered by a member of Management or designate.

- ii) any implied or expressed promise of reward for complying with a sexually oriented request; or
- iii) any implied or expressed threat of reprisal, in the form either of actual reprisal or the denial of opportunity for refusal to comply with a sexually oriented request; or

- v) the communication or display of material with a focus on sexuality or sexual identity which has the effect or purpose of creating a hostile, intimidating working or educational environment.

(e) Filing a Complaint

If an employee believes they have been harassed and/or discriminated against on the basis of any prohibited ground they may request a stop of the behaviour, inform the individual that the behaviour is unwanted and unwelcome, document the events and/or report the incident to the Supervisor or Union Committee Representative.

However, it is also understood that some persons who allege discrimination or harassment may be uncomfortable or reluctant to confront their harasser. In this event, the complainant may seek assistance by reporting the incident directly to any Union Committee Representative or Representative of Management.

(f) Investigation - Informal

Upon receipt of the complaint the Supervisor/Union Committee Representative will immediately inform the Employee Relations Manager. The Employee Relations Manager or designate and the Union Committee Representative will interview the employee jointly and advise the employee if the complaint can be resolved immediately or if the complaint should be formalized in writing. If the parties disagree it will move forward to a formal investigation.

(g) Investigation - Formal

Should a formal complaint investigation be required by both parties an interview of the respondent, witnesses, and other persons named in the complaint will be conducted. Should the complaint involve sexual harassment or gender discrimination, the process may include an appropriate internal advocate as named by the complainant and agreed to by the parties. The investigation process will not exceed fifteen (15) working days unless by mutual consent of both parties. It is understood that the Union Committee Representative will not be the Union Chairperson.

(h) Resolution

If a joint investigation confirms that discrimination or harassment has occurred, immediate action will be taken to put an end to the discrimination or harassment.

The Employee Relations Manager or designate and the Union Committee Representative will provide their findings to the Vice-President, Human Resources or designate and the Chairperson of the Union. The Vice-President, Human Resources or designate will make a determination of appropriate resolution within twenty (20) working days of receiving the findings and will meet with the Union Chairperson to inform them of the resolution. It is agreed that the appropriate resolution will be consistent with the Collective Agreement and the Ontario Human Rights Code and all other applicable legislation.

Such resolutions will be enforced within sixty (60) working days.

The complaint, if unresolved, may be submitted by the Union to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Collective Agreement. The parties agree that complaints should not be pursued through both the grievance and Harassment complaint procedure.

- (i) A complaint of this nature shall be promptly investigated, and appropriate action taken.

Every effort shall be made and maintained by all parties to treat the complaint in a sensitive and confidential fashion, consistent with providing reasonable information to the complainant and the person against whom the complaint is made as to the nature of the allegation, the progress of the complaint and its resolution or disposition.

Where the alleged harasser is the person who would normally deal with any of the steps of the complaint or grievance procedure, the complaint or grievance shall automatically be sent forward to the next step.

At no time during or after a discrimination, harassment or sexual harassment grievance shall the grievor be removed from the area of the alleged harasser unless fully and entirely voluntarily requested by the grievor and without prejudice to the validity of the grievance.

Laid Off Employee: An employee who as a result of the displacement procedure cannot assume another position or elects to waive the displacement procedure.

- 9:01 (a) University-wide seniority shall be defined as length of continuous service with the Employer from the date of hiring and seniority rights shall be established after completion of the probationary period as defined in this Collective Agreement.

Bargaining-Unit seniority shall be defined as the date the employee entered into Unifor 2458PT Bargaining Unit.

- 9:02 Pursuant to Article 9:04 of the Unifor Local 2458 Full Time Collective Agreement, the parties hereby agree that Unifor Local 2458 Full Time Bargaining Unit members cannot bump Unifor Local 2458 Part Time Bargaining Unit members.

9:03 Prior to the implementation of the provisions of this Article, the Employer will meet with the Union and will inform the Union of the Employer's intentions including identification of the affected employee(s) and the reasons for the fixed-term layoff or elimination of the position(s). At this meeting without prejudice the parties will discuss possible alternative arrangements that may lessen the impact of layoffs.

9:04 In the event a position within this Bargaining Unit is eliminated, the following shall apply:

- (a) Prior to the elimination of a position within a department, temporary employees and students within that department performing work of the Bargaining Unit, then probationary employees within that job or probationary employees within a lower classification in the department shall be terminated.
- (b) An employee covered by this Collective Agreement has the option to displace another Bargaining Unit member, in the same or lower classification, who has less Bargaining Unit Seniority. It is understood that said employee(s) must be able to perform the essential duties of the position. - (c) The employee must exercise their displacement rights or accept the layoff within three (3) regular business days following the date of notification of the elimination of their position. If the employee is on vacation or a leave of absence on the said date, the employee shall exercise the said displacement rights within three (3) regular business days following the date of receipt of such notification by registered mail, or any other means of delivery requiring the employee's signature for evidence of receipt.
- (d) When the employee has made their choice in (c) above, the employee who has been displaced will be given three (3) regular business days following the date of notification that they have been displaced, to exercise their displacement rights, or to accept the layoff. If the employee is on vacation or a leave of absence on the said date, the employee shall exercise the said displacement rights or accept the lay off within three (3) regular business days following the date of receipt of such notification by registered mail, or any other means of delivery requiring the employee's signature for evidence of receipt.
- (e) The procedure set out above will continue until there are no further possible displacements, or until enough employees have opted to take the layoff. It is understood some employees may have to exercise their displacement rights more than once.
- (f) All employees affected by the above procedure, in going to a new position will be put into their new position on approximately the same date. The date for any one individual may be delayed to accommodate unforeseen circumstances beyond the control of either party; for example, illness or leave to serve as a juror.
- (g) The laid off employee will have recall rights or the employee may choose to accept severance and terminate their employment in accordance with the severance schedule in Appendix A, and the Employer shall have no further obligation to the employee.
- (h) (i) If a posted position has not been filled by a member of this Bargaining Unit, then all employees who have been laid off shall have the opportunity to be recalled in order of Bargaining Unit seniority provided such employee is at the same or higher classification than that carried by the vacant position. (ii) Employees retain the right to recall for twenty-four (24) months and the Employer will pay eighty (80) percent benefit coverage, for those employees enrolled in any or all of the individual components of the benefits agreed to in Article 18:01(a)(ii), for a period four (4) months as provided in this Agreement and in accordance to the group plan from their most recent laid off date. Should the employee choose to continue the benefit coverage, they must assume one hundred percent (100%) of the cost of premiums during the remainder of the layoff period.

(i) The employee retains the right to recall for twenty four (24) months from their most recent lay off date. In the event an employee's position is eliminated during a fixed term lay off, the employee shall retain the right to recall for twenty four (24) months from the date they receive notification that their position is eliminated.

The individual may elect to displace any probationary or student employee in the same or lower classification working in the department, subject to meeting the essential qualifications.

The laid off Bargaining Unit member shall have the right of recall to their former position, by seniority, should work become available during the fixed term layoff period.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the most senior employee will be given the option of accepting the lay off in lieu of a person with less seniority.

9:06 Any controversy over an employee's seniority or seniority rights shall be subject to the grievance procedure herein set forth.

9:07 The seniority of an employee shall terminate if:

(a) The employee is discharged for just cause and not reinstated.

(b) The employee resigns.

(c) The employee is absent from work in excess of five (5) scheduled working days without notifying the Employer unless such notice was not reasonably possible.

(d) After a layoff the employee fails to notify the Employer within three (3) regular business days after receipt of notice of recall their intent to return to work and/or that they are unable to accept the position due to illness or other reasonable cause. Reasonable cause shall not be interpreted as refusal to accept a position for which the employee is qualified. An employee must be notified by the Employer of recall by registered mail or any other means of delivery requiring a signature of the employee for evidence of receipt addressed to their residence. In the case where employees are currently working at the University, they will be notified by email confirmation by Human Resources and copied to the Union.

- (e) After a layoff an employee fails to report to the recalled position within seven (7) calendar days or such later date determined by the Employer.
- (f) An employee is laid off and their period of recall has been exhausted.

9:08 Continuous service or continuous employment shall mean unbroken employment and shall include: vacations and holidays, scheduled days off, absence because of illness or injury for a period of up to one (1) year, approved leaves of absence, lay offs, and suspensions. All periods may be extended by mutual written consent of the parties hereto.

9:09 (a) If an employee applies for and is awarded a position in the Unifor 2458FT Office and Clerical Bargaining Unit and subsequently returns to the Bargaining Unit the employee shall be considered a new employee for the purposes of seniority. If such employee returns to the Bargaining Unit within a period of ninety (90) calendar days, the employee shall have all seniority rights previously enjoyed as a member of the Bargaining Unit.

- (b) Should a member of this Bargaining Unit temporarily assume the duties of a position in the Unifor 2458FT Office and Clerical Unit they shall continue to accrue seniority for a period of up to three-hundred and sixty-five (365) calendar days. (Examples of such temporary assignment may include: sick leave, leave of absence, etc.

Should the temporary assignment extend beyond three-hundred and sixty five (365) calendar days, the parties may mutually agree to an extension of such temporary assignment.

The Employer agrees to continue to provide part-time work which such employees are capable of performing within the Bargaining Unit.

9:11 In the event that the Employer shall merge, amalgamate, combine or restructure any of its departments or operations, the Union will be notified at least one (1) month in advance of any new part-time position(s). They shall be reviewed by the Joint Job Evaluation Committee and, should such position(s) increase by one (1) or more classifications, the position(s) shall be posted. The Employer agrees that part-time employees whose jobs are eliminated as a result of such action shall:

- a) in the case where the resulting part-time job(s) are of the same classification, the employees so affected shall have the first right of assignment to such part-time job(s) as may be created by such merger, amalgamation, combination or restructuring provided they are qualified to perform the duties of the job(s) in question and such assignment shall be in order of the highest University-wide seniority amongst said employees so affected to the lowest; where no such assignment is possible, the employee so affected shall have the rights of displacement as provided for in this Article.
- b) in the case where the resulting part-time job(s) are of a lower classification, the

The procedure for evaluating a newly created position will be as follows:

- a) In the case of newly created positions, job descriptions shall be written by the Dean/Department Head/Manager/ Supervisor and submitted to the Employee Relations Manager or designate for review who will convene a meeting of the JJEC.
- b) Such positions will be evaluated by the JJEC and a classification established. In the event the evaluation determines that new classification needs to be created, the provisions in Article 14.07 apply.
- c) The Dean/Department Head/Manager/Supervisor will attend the evaluation meeting to answer questions of the JJEC related to the duties of the new position. The JJEC shall evaluate the position to determine its appropriate point value before the position is posted.
- d) Such final decision by the JJEC shall be binding on the Employer and the Union until the employee has been in the position for twelve (12) months.
- e) The position description shall be reviewed by the incumbent and the immediate Supervisor once the incumbent has been in the position for twelve (12) months. This review will enable both parties to determine if the job description accurately reflects the duties that have been performed by the incumbent.
- f) In the event, this review determines that the position duties have changed, the job description signed by both the incumbent and immediate supervisor will be sent to the Employee Relations Manager or designate for review prior to convening a meeting of the JJEC to re-evaluate the position.
- g) If the position is evaluated at a higher classification level, the higher salary level will apply, retroactively to the date of hire, or the date that can be clearly established on which the duties came into effect, whichever is later.
- h) In the event, the JJEC determine that the evaluation of the position is two (2) or more classifications higher, the position will be posted and the provisions of Article 10 will apply. Further, the incumbent will be afforded their rights in Article 9 and will be considered for bumping at the level they were hired at, not the re-evaluated level.

If the position is evaluated at a lower classification level, the employee shall not suffer loss of wages.

The procedure for re-evaluation of existing position descriptions will be as follows:

- a) Requests for re-evaluation of position descriptions shall be in writing with a copy to the immediate Supervisor and will be submitted in the first instance, by the applicant, to the Employee Relations Manager or designate, for review prior to convening the Committee to evaluate the job description.
- b) The incumbent and/or supervisor will have five (5) working days after the receipt of the re-evaluation to request reconsideration. The re-evaluation of a position may be appealed to the "Appeals Committee" composed of the members of the JJEC who did not hear the initial re-evaluation.

- c) Not more than once during the life of this Collective Agreement, may an employee submit a request for re-evaluation of their position. The revised job description and a summary of changes must be submitted to the Employee Relations Manager or designate for review prior to convening a meeting of the JJEC.

28.04 In all cases, the Union shall receive copies of the final position descriptions and their evaluations as well as on a monthly basis, the copies of minutes of the JJEC meetings, rating notes and other relevant correspondence.
