The parties are committed to providing a discrimination and harassment-free workplace.

(a) Discrimination

Discrimination is defined as a distinction, whether intentional or not, based on grounds relating to personal characteristics of an individual or group, which has the effect of imposing burdens, obligations, or disadvantages on such individual or group not imposed upon others, or which withholds or limits access to opportunities, benefits, and advantages available to other members of society.

The parties agree that there shall be no discrimination, interference, restriction, or coercion exercised or practiced with respect to any employee in any matter on the basis of race, creed, colour, age, sex (pregnancy, gender identity, gender expression), marital status, family status, ancestry, place of origin, citizenship, place of residence, political or religious affiliation or beliefs, sexual orientation, same sex partnership status, receipt of public assistance, record of offences, disability, nor by reason of Union membership or activity.

(b) Harassment

Should a formal complaint investigation be required by both parties an interview of the respondent, witnesses, and other persons named in the complaint will be conducted. Should the complaint involve sexual harassment or gender discrimination, the process may include an appropriate internal advocate as named by the complainant and agreed to by the parties. The investigation process will not exceed fifteen (15) working days unless by mutual consent of both parties. The complaint, if unresolved, may be submitted by the Union to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Collective Agreement. The parties agree that complaints should not be pursued through both the Grievance and Harassment complaint procedure.

(i) A complaint of this nature shall be promptly investigated and appropriate action taken.

Every effort shall be made and maintained by all parties to treat the complaint in a sensitive and confidential fashion, consistent with providing reasonable information to the complainant and the person against whom the complaint is made as to the nature of the allegation, the progress of the complaint and its resolution or disposition.

ARTICLE 11 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

11:01 In the event that any employee considers that he/she has a complaint which might result in a grievance or if either party shall be of the opinion that any provision of this Agreement has been or is being violated, an earnest effort shall be made by the Union and the Employer to adjust such complaint as quickly as possible in the following manner:

Early Resolution Stage

An employee who has an issue shall discuss it with the Director of Campus Community Police or the Executive Director, Campus Services or designate whoever is appropriate. The employee may request that a Union Committee Person be present during this discussion.

If the complainant and the Director of Campus Community Police or the Executive Director, Campus Services or designate fail to resolve the issue to the complainant's satisfaction, the Union may invoke Step 1 of the grievance procedure. Each subsequent step shall require the approval and assistance of the Union.

Step 1:

Within seven (7) calendar days after the complaint was brought forward, the Union may submit their complaint in grievance format in writing to the Director of Campus Community Police or the Executive Director, Campus Services or designate as appropriate and may request a meeting to discuss the grievance further. A copy of the grievance will also be sent to the Employee Relations Manager and Director of Campus Community Police or the Executive Director, Campus Services. The Director of Campus Community Police or Executive Director, Campus Services or designate shall deliver a decision in writing to the Union within seven (7) calendar days following the receipt of the grievance. If the Union is dissatisfied with the decision of the Director of Campus Community Police or Executive Director, Campus Services or designate the Union may proceed to Step 2.

Step 2:

Within seven (7) calendar days after the decision in Step 1 is given, the Union may submit the grievance in writing to the Employee Relations Manager. It is agreed that Union Representatives who submit grievances under the provisions of the within Article shall state on the original grievance form why they do not find acceptable the replies previously given by representatives of the Employer. Within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of the grievance, a meeting will then be held between the Employee Relations Manager and the Union Grievance Committee. The Union Grievance Committee and the grievor, if required to attend this meeting will do so without any loss of pay including any actual hours for meeting outside of their regular shift. This decision of the Employee Relations Manager shall be delivered in writing to the Union within seven (7) calendar days. If said procedure fails to produce settlement of the matter within ten (10) calendar days, it may then be submitted to arbitration.

As an alternative to the regular arbitration procedure the parties shall have the option of mutually agreeing to refer a post second step grievance to a grievance commissioner in the following procedure:

- (a) The Employer and Union may agree in writing to the appointment of Michael Watters or another agreed upon individual as a single arbitrator to be known as a grievance commissioner who will set aside such time as may be requested by the Employer and the Union to consider and determine grievance(s) referred to him hereunder for final and binding arbitration. The grievance commissioner shall have the same powers and be subject to the same limitations as an arbitrator under Article 12 - Arbitration.
- (b) Through the grievance commissioner, the parties desire the expeditious means for the effective disposition of a grievance which the parties have agreed may be handled in a summary manner. The rules governing the summary proceeding of the grievance commissioner are set out in the schedule hereto.
- (c) The decision of the grievance commissioner shall only be applicable in the case in question and shall not constitute a precedent nor be used by either party as a precedent in future cases. Notwithstanding anything contained in the agreement, the decision of the grievance commissioner shall:
 - i) Be consistent with the provision(s) of the agreement.
 - ii) Be confined to the grievance referred to him/her.
- (d) The Union and the Employer shall each be responsible for one-half the expenses of any fees payable to the grievance commissioner.
- (e) The parties, when referring a grievance to a grievance commissioner shall also provide him/her with the Step 1 summary (or as amended by agreement of the parties) and the decisions of the management representative at Step 2.
- (f) The parties shall supply the grievance commissioner and each other with additional concise and brief written representation on which they intend to reply provided that such are mailed not less than ten (10) days before the commencement of the hearings of the grievance commissioner.
- (g) The parties shall meet at least ten (10) days prior to the hearing day in order to determine what information or facts can be agreed upon prior to the hearing in order that a statement of facts can be written and provided to each party and the grievance commissioner before the commencement of the hearing.
- (h) The purpose of the hearing is to clarify the issues or facts in dispute. At the hearing the parties may make such further representations or adduce such evidence as the grievance commissioner may permit or require, but the grievance commissioner shall not be obligated to conform to the rules of evidence.
- (i) The grievance commissioner must render his/her decision in writing without reasons to both parties within seven (7) days of the conclusion of the hearings. Upon request by either party after his/her decision has been rendered, the grievance commissioner shall deliver brief reasons but such reasons shall not form part of his/her decision.

- 11:02 The Employer shall grant reasonable time to a Union Representative for the adjustment of grievances without loss of pay.
- It is understood that the Union representatives have their regular work to perform and that when it is necessary to service a grievance during their work hours, they will not leave their work assignment without first obtaining the permission of their immediate supervisor, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. The Union representative shall leave a phone/cell phone number with their supervisor to be contacted in the event of a situation deemed to be an emergency under the emergency response plan. The Union representative shall report again to them at the time of their return to work.
- 11:03 Replies to all grievances shall be in writing at all stages.
- 11:04 (a) Any and all time limits fixed by this Article may, at any time, be extended by mutual written consent of the parties in writing.
- (b) If the Employer or the Union fail to meet the time limits set out in this Article, the grievance shall be deemed in favour of the other party.
- 11:05 In the case of a policy grievance alleging that the Employer has violated or misinterpreted this Agreement, the Chairperson of the Union, in the first instance, shall present the same to the Employee Relations Manager.
- 11:06 The grievance procedure hereinbefore described shall apply to a grievance lodged by a group of employees, save that an appeal on a group grievance shall not be rejected on the ground of lack of signature by the employees alleging the grievance, provided one such employee signs such notice of appeal.
- 11:07 The aggrieved employee may be present during each step of the grievance procedure and at arbitration. When a group of employees has a complaint or grievance it shall first be taken up under Step 1. Such employees may be represented by the Union Grievance Committee.
- 11:08 If no written request for arbitration is received within ten (10) working days after the final decision under the grievance procedure is given, the grievance shall be deemed to have been abandoned by the employee and/or the Union.
- 11:09 All decisions arrived at between representatives of the Employer and representatives of the Union under the terms of the within Article, shall be final and binding on the Employer, the Union and the employee or employees concerned.
- 11:10 The Union Grievance Committee, Employee Relations Manager and Director of Campus Community Police will meet on a monthly basis to discuss grievances at a time mutually agreeable by both parties. An agenda of outstanding Step 3 grievances will be submitted by either party three (3) days prior to said meetings.

ARTICLE 12 - ARBITRATION

- 12:01 When either party requests that a grievance be submitted to arbitration, the request shall be made by notice in writing addressed to the other party to the Agreement. Within ten (10) calendar days thereafter, the parties shall meet together, if necessary, and appoint an arbitrator. If the parties fail to agree upon the selection of an arbitrator, the appointment shall be made by the Minister of Labour for the Province of Ontario upon request of either party.
- 12:02 No person shall be selected as an arbitrator who:
- (a) is acting or, has within a period of six (6) months preceding the date of his/her appointment, acted in the capacity of a solicitor, legal advisor, counsel or paid agent of either of the parties.
 - (b) has any pecuniary interest in the matters in dispute.
- 12:03 The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties to this Agreement; but in no event shall the arbitrator have the power to alter, modify or amend this Agreement in any respect, or to substitute any new provisions for any existing provisions nor to make any decision inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this Agreement.
- 12:04 Each party to this Agreement shall pay half of the fees and expenses of the arbitrator.
- 12:05 Time limits fixed in the grievance procedure and the arbitration procedure may be extended by consent of both parties to this Agreement in writing. Section 44(6) of the Labour Relations Act of Ontario shall not apply.
- 12:06 At any stage of the grievance or arbitration procedure, the parties may have the assistance of the employee concerned as a witness and any other witnesses and all reasonable arrangements will be made to permit the conferring parties or the arbitrator to have access to any part of the Employer's premises to view any working condition which may be relevant to the settlement of the grievance. The Employer agrees to permit the Chairperson to be present during any arbitration proceedings without any loss of pay.
- 12:07 The Chairperson may appoint a delegate to replace him/her in any matter relating to Articles 11 and 13 of the within Collective Agreement.

The Employer will commence investigation within thirty (30) days of becoming aware of the incident, or the thirty (30) day time limit may be extended with mutual agreement in writing by both parties. If it is known at the onset that discipline is going to be issued, any members being interviewed by the Employer will be provided Union representation. The Union recognizes and agrees that it may on certain occasions be necessary for the Employer to discipline and/or discharge an employee without a Committee Person present. If such action is taken on certain occasions, the Employer agrees to review the action with the employee and his/her Committee Person within a forty-eight (48) hour period following the initial action. The Employer will provide the Union with copies of all discipline letters. Failure to provide such letters does not invalidate such disciplinary action.

13:02 An employee who feels that he/she has been unjustly discharged or suspended, may make written complaint to his/her superior and the Chairperson of the Union within five (5) working days after the discharge or suspension becomes effective. Upon receipt of such complaint, the Union shall make a complete investigation as to the justification thereof, and in the event the Employer and the Union disagree as to the justification, the matter shall be submitted to the grievance and arbitration procedures and dealt with as herein provided. If the employee does not file such complaint within the time prescribed, the matter shall not be subject to any provisions of the within Article.

If the holiday falls within the employee's vacation period, he/she may elect to receive an additional day's vacation in lieu of the additional pay for the holiday, in which event the additional days' vacation shall be at a time mutually agreeable between the Employer and the employee.

- 15:05 The employee shall be paid for each statutory holiday during the week during which the holiday occurs, or in the week for which it is proclaimed to be observed.
- 15:06 If a statutory holiday occurs in any week prior to the completion of an employee's scheduled work week, such day shall be considered as a day worked for the purposes of computing the employee's entitlement to overtime pay as hereinafter provided.

- 16:02(a) Employees entitled to less than three (3) weeks' (120 hours) vacation with pay hereunder shall take such vacation at any time from January 1st to December 31st of the same calendar year. Employees entitled to three (3) weeks' (120 hours) vacation with pay or more hereunder may elect to take their vacation entitlement less one (1) week (40 hours) at any time from January 1st to December 31st of the same calendar year, and may take the aforementioned one (1) week in the following calendar year. Employees shall give the Employer thirty (30) calendar days' notice of intention to take vacation. Vacation requests made less than thirty (30) calendar days will be considered on a first come, first served basis subject to operational requirements.

(b) By September 15th, members who have failed to submit their remaining vacation requests save for any holdback as provided for in this Article shall be notified in writing of the need to submit their choices for vacation by October 1st. 16:06 For the purpose of calculation of vacation entitlement, accumulated service as herein defined shall not include lay-offs for all employees hired after August 12, 1982. Should an employee suffer an illness or injury during their vacation which results in their hospitalization or which would otherwise have prevented the employee from attending work or performing modified duties, the employee shall be considered as being on sick leave for that period of hospitalization or that period of inability to perform work on condition that the employee notifies the employer upon return from vacation and provides satisfactory proof of hospitalization, illness or injury and its duration, dated during the time of hospitalization, illness or injury. Further in the case of illness or injury not requiring hospitalization, the employee shall at the option of the Employer, swear an Affidavit before a Notary selected by the Employer in which the employee shall give particulars as to the dates, duration and nature of the illness or injury incurred. If, subsequent to the swearing of such Affidavit the Employer can show the employee has falsified information in the Affidavit, such employee may be disciplined subject to the right of any employee to file a grievance as set forth in Article 11 hereof.

Vacation time not taken as a result of this provision shall be rescheduled to a mutually agreeable time.

16:07 The two (2) or three (3) or four (4) scheduled days of work each year between Christmas Day and New Year's Day exclusive of Boxing Day and the day before New Year's Day and any Saturday or Sunday occurring between Christmas Day and New Year's Day inclusive shall be considered as days of paid vacation. If a member of the Bargaining Unit works on any or all of the said days, such persons shall be entitled to compensating time off at a later date to be mutually agreed upon by the employee and his/her superior or pay at the employee's normal rate of pay in lieu of compensating time off, - the choice to be at the option of the employee. (hereinafter referred to as "the Union")

RE:

Platoon schedule and 12 hour shifts

Whereas, the Employer and the Union held discussions January 21, 2010 and further to the meeting of March 8, 2010 regarding alternatives to the eight hour shift schedule the parties agree to the following without prejudice or precedent:

1. (i) Flex days will be banked with one flex day to be taken in the six week cycle in which it is earned. Should the Employer be unable to grant flex time off due to a shortage on the shift, the Employer will be required to submit alternate dates within the cycle. Should these alternate dates not be approved the employee will be entitled to carry over the flex day.
- (ii) Flex day request will not be granted where such granting of a request will cause over time.
2. When a Sergeant and Acting Sergeant on the same platoon are absent, no Sergeant will be called in on overtime. The senior Special Constable on the platoon shall be the Acting Sergeant.
3. (i) When an employee calls in sick, they must call in to notify the Employer six hours in advance of their next shift whether they will be returning to work or continuing their absence.
- (ii) When an employee is absent in excess of three weeks (15 calendar days) the union will canvas the membership for voluntary switches. Should there be no volunteers, the Employer, will have the right to schedule the most junior Special Constable available on another Platoon. It is understood that the above will be implemented at the onset of the absence, when the duration of the absence is known. Special constables will be given 3 working days (72 hours) to respond to the volunteer shift switch and the junior constable will be given 10 calendar days notice of the Employer's intent to change their schedule.
- (iii) In the event a vacation request was approved prior to the employee's change in schedule, the vacation request will be honoured by the Department.
4. The Employer will post a notice of its intention to meet with employees whose absenteeism exceeds that of the bargaining unit average. During these meetings, the Employer will outline its expectation to each individual. This may include the Employer's requirement that a Physician's note be received by the Employer ie: being called for over time.

This settlement is made without precedent or prejudice.
