• Graduate Academic Calendar

UWindsor Home > University Secretariat > The Senate > Academic Calendars

Academic Calendars

The Academic Calendars are a comprehensive guide to all undergraduate and graduate programs and courses available at the University of Windsor. It outlines academic regulations and standards, program degree requirements, and general University policies for all undergraduate and graduate programs (with the exception of Law). The online calendars are the official calendars. The University of Windsor publishes web calendars on a semester basis (Winter, Spring and Fall).

Note: Students may follow the academic rules and program regulations set out in the calendar of the term in which they were first admitted to the program or any subsequent calendar.

- Kinesiology Graduate Programs

Graduate Programs

The Department of Kinesiology, in the Faculty of Human Kinetics, offers a Master of Science (Kinesiology & Health Studies), Master of Sport Management and Leadership, as well as a PhD in Kinesiology.

MSc (Kinesiology and Health Studies)

The Master of Science (Kinesiology and Health Studies) focuses on the application of movement science in sport, physical activity, exercise, health, wellness, and the workplace. Students pursue course work and either thesis research, or an internship experience that examines the basic and applied principles of human biomechanics, ergonomics, motor behavior, sport and exercise psychology, or exercise physiology, health and wellness.

Learn more about a MSc\(K&HS\)

Master of Sport Management & Leadership (MSML)

The Master of Sport Management & Leadership (MSML) prepares students to be effective managers and leaders in sport; to critique social, historical, and cultural influences of and in sport; and to develop innovative solutions to critical problems in today's multi-faceted sport industry.

The MSML program offers both a thesis and an internship option. The thesis option provides students an opportunity to engage in research on a topic of their interest. The internship option provides students with hands-on work experience to complement their coursework.

According to SportBusiness International's Postgraduate Sports Course Rankings, our MSML program is the best program of its kind in Canada and among the top in the world.

Learn more about a MSML

PhD in Kinesiology

The goal of the PhD program in Kinesiology is to allow students interested in Kinesiology & Health Studies or Sport Management and Leadership to develop excellence in designing, conducting, and disseminating research knowledge to the broader community including the workplace; sport, recreation, and leisure environments; teaching and pedagogy; and exercise, physical activity, and rehabilitation settings.

The PhD program includes a unique community-based internship requirement, designed to complement the program's focus on community well-being, and provides doctoral students with the opportunity to engage in impactful community-based service.

- Faculty of Graduate Studies: Current Students

The screenshot shows the University of Windsor Faculty of Graduate Studies website. The header includes the university logo, navigation links (FUTURE STUDENTS, ask.UWindsor, GIVE TO UWINDSOR), and a search bar. The main navigation bar lists: ABOUT US, FUTURE STUDENTS, CURRENT STUDENTS, FACULTY & STAFF, FUNDING, GRADUATE CALENDAR, and GRAD STUDIES NEWS. The left sidebar menu is expanded for 'Current students', showing links for 'Important Dates', 'Registration, Policies, and Regulations', 'Student Services', 'Tuition Fees', 'Funding and employment', 'UWindsite Student', 'Student Forms', 'Theses, Dissertations, and Major Papers', 'Ontario Visiting Graduate Student', 'Graduation', and '3MT Three Minute Thesis Competition'. The main content area is titled 'Important Dates for Graduate Students' and includes a breadcrumb trail: UWindsor Home > Faculty of Graduate Studies > Current students > Important Dates for Graduate Students. It features a list of dates: Summer term 2025 (May to Aug.), Fall term 2025 (Sept. to Dec.), and Winter term 2026 (Jan. to April). Social media sharing options (Facebook, X, Pinterest) are provided. The right sidebar contains sections for 'Grad News' (listing events like the Graduate Studies Showcase and Orientation workshop), 'Current Students FAQ' (with questions about health/dental plans, registration, and funding), and 'Upcoming Events' (listing Labour day, Orientation for new Graduate and Teaching Assistants, First day of Fall term 2025 classes, Academic Add/Drop for Fall 2025, and Defence Deadline for both Phase I and Fall 2025 graduation).
