Dear Sir/Madam:

We are enclosing our invitation for applications for the 2005 competition for the Hon. G. I. Smith Memorial bursary.

We would appreciate your bringing this notice to the attention of potential applicants.

Applications should be in our hands by March 31, 2005. There is no formal application form. Applicants normally reply with a letter covering the various aspects of the requirements, including a transcript of university marks. A written reference from a law professor should also be submitted.

We would appreciate having your confirmation that the invitation notice has been posted. Thank you for your cooperation.

Yours very truly,
J.R. Winters, Q.C., Chairman
The Honourable G. I. Smith
Memorial Trust
