

Tutoring Program (Faculty of Nursing)

- The role of the Faculty of Nursing is to facilitate a connection only between students who are eligible to tutor and students who request a tutor. Tutors can charge students up to $20.00/hour. Tutors are available for all required nursing courses. If interested, students should contact the Student Success Coordinator, Fran Meloche RN, MScN; fmeloche@uwindsor.ca.
- Dr. Kirsten Poling is a professor in the Faculty of Science.
- Tutoring is provided for free for courses such as:
 - Microbiology for Nursing
 - Human Anatomy & Physiology I
 - Human Anatomy & Physiology II
 - Pharmacology & Medication Management I
 - Pharmacology & Medication Management II
