

Patient Safety Learning Series Events

Best Practices to Improve the Safety of Patients with Central Venous Access Devices

Monday, February 25th, 2019 11:30am to 12:30pm
University of Windsor, Toldo room 200

Nurse Anesthetist and Nursing Clinical Instructor Mark Campbell will discuss the different types central lines; the importance of a care bundle; infection prevention; common problems and appropriate interventions.

Pediatric Obesity: Safety Considerations for Patients, Providers, and the Community

Wednesday, March 20th, 2019 2:30pm to 3:30pm University of Windsor, Toldo room 203

Pediatric overweight and obesity affects over 30% of children, making it the most common chronic disease of childhood. This issue has safety implications for patients, providers, and the community. The speaker, Brian Eells, is a nurse anesthetist, doing primarily, high-risk pediatric anesthesia.

Fatigue Awareness & Mitigation: Lessons from Aviation Mishaps

Monday, March 25th, 2019 2:30pm to 3:30pm
University of Windsor, Toldo room 200

Dr. Adam Sirek teaches for the Schulich School of Medicine and has served as an officer and pilot in the Royal Canadian Air Force. He also practices family, occupational, and aerospace medicine. He will discuss sleep & alertness physiology; recognition of personal fatigue levels; and strategies.

Trauma Informed Practice (TIP) and Implications for Patient Safety

Wednesday, March 27th, 2019 2:30pm to 3:30pm
University of Windsor, Toldo room 203

Mika Tomac has extensive experience in mental health and counselling and is a lecturer in the Faculty of Nursing. TIP involves integrating understanding of all forms of violence/trauma into practice (BCCEWH, 2015)

Providing Safe Wound Care and Implication for Healthcare Providers

Monday, April 1st, 2019 2:30pm to 3:30pm
University of Windsor, Toldo room 200

Sherry Morrell is professor in the Faculty of Nursing and a Nurse Practitioner in the ED at Windsor Regional Hospital. She is a wound expert! Do you know how to recognize and care for different types of wounds?

These free education sessions are open to anyone who has an interest in Patient Safety including students, faculty/staff from all faculties and individuals from outside the university

Certificates of attendance provided
These are IPE events
(Interprofessional Education)

Undergraduate students are eligible for door prizes

Register at:

https://uwindsor.ca/qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_72nvkzkA52cPZmB

For more information contact Susan Dennison

dennison@uwindsor.ca

or Lacey Ecclestone

Lacey.Ecclestone@uwindsor.ca

Please arrive a few minutes early to sign in and grab a seat! Space may be limited.

Event sponsored by:

