

Benefits of the Breastfeeding Room.....

- Allows mothers to keep up their nutrient supply if they are pumping
- Ensures privacy and a relaxing environment to take care of nursing needs
- Convenient location for students, staff & faculty www.uwindsor.ca/ohrea/breastfeeding-room

CONTACT US

Office of Human Rights, Equity, and Accessibility

Chrysler Hall Tower, Room 325

Tel: 519-253-3000 Ext. 3400

Email: ohrea@uwindsor.ca

www.uwindsor.ca/ohrea

UWIN_Ohrea

UWIN_Ohrea

University of Windsor's Office of Human Rights, Equity, & Accessibility

Updated: August 2022

BREASTFEEDING ROOM, for Students, Staff, & Faculty

The Office of Human Rights,
Equity, and Accessibility
(OHREA)
Chrysler Hall Room 320

University of Windsor

The University of Windsor is committed to upholding the Ontario Human Rights Code (OHRC) which includes: breastfeeding, returning to work, postpartum, and beyond.

Instructions for Online Access

You will need your UWIN ID to create a key request. Follow these steps:

- 1) login at keycontrol.uwindsor.ca
- 2) For Department, select “OHREA”
- 3) For Room, select “Chrysler Hall Tower Room 320”
- 4) Click on “Add Room”
- 5) Submit Request

About the Breastfeeding Room

The University of Windsor offers the campus community a place to breast-feed, bottle-feed, or express milk.

Located in Chrysler Hall Tower (CHT) on the 3rd floor, Room 320 is a well lit and private space, equipped with:

- refrigerator
- electric kettle
- microwave oven
- comfortable seating
- privacy screen
- diaper change table