The purpose of the OHREA Fund is to support human rights, equity, race relations, culture, diversity, and accessibility related initiatives for the University community. The intention is to enhance the knowledge, skills, and appreciation of diversity and pluralism.

This funding is to be provided to faculties, departments, units, student organizations, etc. in a cost sharing partnership up to $500 for larger events, and up to $300 for smaller initiatives (depending upon the initiative, need and availability of funds). The fund may also be used to facilitate the University presence/participation at related external events. The fund is not intended for personal use. Applications are accepted from recognized units, groups, or organizations.

To apply, please complete this form email it to ohrea@uwindsor.ca.
