

Organization of Part-time University Students (OPUS) 2012-2015 Strategic Plan

The Organization of Part-time University Students (OPUS) is a student group at the University of Windsor made up of volunteer part-time students who provide services and advocate on behalf of part-time students.

OPUS has a long history on campus and was established in 1969 to provide a means for part-time students to have their voices heard on campus.

OPUS has had a strong and participative presence on campus. OPUS feels this Strategic Plan will continue to build on the foundation that has been laid.

The Strategic Plans Five Pillars guide OPUS's Strategic Direction and include; Student Advocacy, Student Services, Student Engagement, OPUS Image, and Future Planning. This plan outlines a disciplined approach to support the ongoing transformation and growth of OPUS in assisting to provide a rewarding and engaging student experience at the University of Windsor.

The Strategic Plan aligns well and is guided by the OPUS vision and mission.

OPUS Vision

The vision of OPUS is that all part-time students enjoy an engaging, fulfilling and rewarding experience at the University of Windsor.

OPUS Mission

OPUS is a dynamic organization that advocates and promotes a rewarding University of Windsor experience for part-time students

The Goals of the Strategic Plan Five Pillars

Student Advocacy

To be a leader and resource for part-time students advocating for their interests at the University of Windsor, provincially and nationally.

Student Services

To provide meaningful and value added services to part-time students. Services that provide a collective and/or an individual benefit to enhance the part-time student university experience.

Student Engagement

Be a leader in providing opportunities for part-time students to engage with each other. Be an agent in promoting and advocating for best practices for student engagement in the learning environment and on campus.

OPUS Image

Be admired by part-time students and the University of Windsor community as a leader and a value added service. Be seen by the university community as a valued contributor to the engagement, success and enjoyment in the educational life of part-time students and the entire university community.

Future Planning

Prepare OPUS for future challenges, ensure financial stability, succession planning and innovative ways to secure and expand OPUS services and viability.

Each Strategic Pillar will have activities, initiatives and deliverables attached to them to achieve our goals from August 2012 to August 2015
