

2a. CONT'D

Bonus: This is called a Peterson olefination, which is an alternative to the Wittig reaction,

The acid and base induced elimination does make a difference in double bond stereochemistry. Obviously, there is none in this case.