

DOUGLAS WALTON LEGACY WORKSHOP

Draft as of February 2

- A draft paper by John Woods for consideration and commentary, entitled Walton: 1972-1982, will be circulated as part of your registration package.
- All presentations and food, except the Saturday banquet, will be in the Katzman Lounge, Vanier Hall.

Friday February 17

1-1:10 Catherine Hundleby	Welcome
1:10 – 2:10 pm Alice Toniolo (St. Andrews)	KEYNOTE: TBA
2:10 – 2:40	BREAK
2:40 – 3:20 Asma Tajuddin (Windsor)	Understanding the Relevance and Significance of Argumentation in the Development of Artificial Intelligence through Douglas Walton's work
3:30 – 4:10 Loris Isabettini (Windsor)	Kisceral Argumentation, Christian Mysticism, Music and Douglas Walton's Theories
4:20 - 5pm Philip Morais (Windsor)	Media via Medium Argumentation: A Grammar of Dialectics

Saturday February 18

9:30 - 10:30 am David Godden (Michigan State)	KEYNOTE: TBA
10:30 – 11am	BREAK
11-11:40 Shiyang Yu (Nankai) & Frank Zenker (Nankai)	Walton's Contribution to Analyzing and Evaluating the Ad Baculum Argument
11:50 – 12:20 Adelino Cattani (Padua)	Fallacies as Logical and Behavioural Issues
12:20 – 2pm	LUNCH
2 – 2:40 pm Jianfeng Wang (Windsor)	A Quantum Leap from Informal Logic to Rhetoric: Ad Hominem Arguments and Douglas Walton's Rhetorical Turn
2:50 - 3:50 Fabrizio Macagno (Nova de Lisboa)	KEYNOTE: Petitio Principii and the Pragmatics of Fallacies
5:30/6pm	BANQUET