Any untenured AAS member at the AAS I or II level can be considered for tenure/permanence after two full years of employment at the University. In such cases, the AAS member shall initiate the process by making an application to the AAU Head by September 15. If the early tenure/permanence application is unsuccessful, the untenured AAS member will continue in their probationary appointment according to the normal timelines. Where an AAS member's early permanence application falls in their year of renewal, an unsuccessful permanence application will default to a review for renewal of contract. In such cases, a separate submission by the AAS member is not required. The maximum length of employment at the probationary level is six full years of employment.

Dear Dr./Prof. (Name),

I am writing to you concerning Dr./Prof. (Name), (Rank), in the (Dept) within the Faculty of (Faculty name) at the University of Windsor, who is being considered for permanence. Our Senate Bylaw 23 (enclosed) requires that before a final decision to recommend a candidate for permanence is made, the Academic Administrative Unit's (AAU's) Renewal, Permanence and Promotion Committee (RPP) obtain "independent external evaluations of the quality of the candidate's scholarly and professional activities." These evaluations are also forwarded to the University Committee on Academic Promotion and Tenure. Refer to Senate Bylaw 23 (attached).

In the case of LS-AAS candidates (Learning Specialist, Ancillary Academic Staff), whose work is focused on teaching and pedagogical service, the criteria for permanence take into account the relative proportion of time intended to be spent on teaching, service, and scholarship vis-à-vis the candidate's job description to adapt criteria appropriate for their roles. The responsibilities of LS-AAS candidates (Learning Specialist, Ancillary Academic Staff) may include project management, organization of pedagogical events, curriculum coordination, and development, educational/academic development, and academic leadership.

[The criteria quoted above cover the research activities of the vast majority of candidates considered for permanence. Nevertheless, some professors' work is in the creative and performing arts so their performances and other forms of creative activities will complement or will substitute for published, scholarly research. Dr./Prof. (Name) falls within this category.]

Your name has been put forward as a potential assessor from a list approved by the AAU's Renewal, Permanence and Promotion Committee. I am providing you with information regarding this task and to ask if you will agree to act in this capacity. Your evaluation will be made available to the candidate in a form which does not identify you; however, you may waive this practice of anonymity. I sincerely hope you will assist the Department/School of _____ in this regard.

If you agree, I will forward you a list of Dr./Prof. (Name) works, selected copies of any books and/or major refereed works, and a summary of major professional activities [performances and/or creative contributions and a sampling of playbills, photos, reviews, documents regarding program coordination, descriptions of workshops and training sessions taught, promotional materials produced], a teaching dossier or professional portfolio, and other information that will be of assistance to you. Please comment in detail on the significance of each aspect of the candidate's work about which you believe you have adequate expertise and experience to render a reasonable evaluation.

As the focus of Dr./Prof. (Name)'s position is teaching and pedagogical service, please focus your assessment on the significance and quality of their contributions in those areas, based on the evidence provided, their reputation in the field, and the criteria derived from the candidate's job description. Regarding Dr./Prof. (Name)'s scholarship/research (if appropriate to the position), please comment on the significance of the individual publications, including the merit of the work, its originality, and its impact on the field of study. In addition, please compare Dr./Prof. (Name) to other scholars in this field at the same stage of career development.

You are not being asked whether Dr./Prof. (Name) should be awarded permanence at the University of Windsor. You are also not being asked to indicate if Dr./Prof. (Name) would be awarded permanence at your institution. Comments from these perspectives do not provide an evaluative perspective and thus may reduce the applicability of your assessment.

There are other key factors such as teaching performance and administrative contributions that will be considered in our decision. We will make this overall assessment on the basis of the candidate's total record, and according to our criteria and standards. You are not asked to comment on all areas (teaching, research, unless you have direct familiarity with the candidate's performance.

If you agree to evaluate Dr./Prof.'s (Name) work, I shall need your written response by (date). Please also indicate if you prefer your evaluation to remain anonymous.

We look forward to your reply.

On behalf of our RPP committee, thank you.

Sincerely

AAU Head

Promotion to LS-AAS IV - Referee's Sample Letter

September X, 20XX

Dr.

University of.....

Dear Dr./Prof ,

I am writing you concerning Dr./Prof. (Name), Learning Specialist, Ancillary Academic Staff (LS-AAS III) in the (Dept name) within the Faculty of (Faculty name) at the University of Windsor.

Dr. (Name) is being considered for promotion to the rank of Learning Specialist, Ancillary Academic Staff IV (LS-AAS IV). Our Senate Bylaw 23 (enclosed) requires that the Academic Administrative Unit's (AAU's) Renewal, Permanence and Promotion Committee obtain "independent external evaluations of the quality of the candidate's scholarly and professional activities" and other responsibilities pertinent to the candidate's job description. These evaluations are also forwarded to the University Committee on Academic Promotion and Tenure, whose guidelines require candidates for the rank of LS-AAS IV to have demonstrated a substantial commitment to teaching, service and scholarship over a considerable span of time, and a reasonable expectation that this will continue. The candidate's contributions to the institution and the field must be recognized as exemplary.

In the case of LS-AAS candidates (Learning Specialist, Ancillary Academic Staff), whose work is focused on teaching and pedagogical service, the criteria for Learning Specialist - Ancillary Academic Staff IV take into account the relative proportion of time intended to be spent on teaching, service, and scholarship vis-à-vis the candidate's job description to adapt criteria appropriate for their roles. The responsibilities of LS-AAS candidates (Learning Specialist, Ancillary Academic Staff) may include project management, organization of pedagogical events, curriculum coordination and development, educational/academic development, and academic leadership.

[Note that some AAS members concentrate in the creative and performing arts so the performances and other forms of creative activity will complement or will substitute for published, scholarly research. Dr./Prof. (Name) falls within this category.]

Your name has been put forward as a potential assessor from a list approved by the AAU Renewal, Permanence and Promotion Committee. I am providing you with information regarding this task and to ask if you will act in this capacity. Your evaluation will be included in Dr./Prof. (Name)'s file where the contents may be read by Dr./Prof. (Name). Your identity as writer of the reference will not be disclosed unless you indicate that you waive your right to anonymity. I sincerely hope you will assist the AAU in this regard.

If you agree, I will forward you a list of Dr./Prof. (Name) works, selected copies of any books and/or major refereed works, and a summary of major professional activities [performances and/or creative contributions and a sampling of playbills, photos, reviews, documents regarding program coordination, descriptions of workshops and training sessions taught, promotional materials produced], a teaching dossier or professional portfolio, and other information that will be of assistance to you. Please comment in detail on the significance of each aspect of the candidate's work about which you believe you have adequate expertise and experience to render a reasonable evaluation.

Because the focus of Dr./Prof. (Name)'s position is teaching and pedagogical service, please focus your assessment on the significance and quality of their contributions in those areas, insofar as they can be assessed using the evidence provided, their reputation in the field, and the criteria derived from the candidate's job description.

Regarding Dr./Prof. (Name)'s scholarship/research (if appropriate to the position), please comment on the significance of the individual publications, including the merit of the work, its originality, and its impact on the field of study. In addition, please compare Dr./Prof. (Name) to other scholars in this field at the same stage of career development.

You are not being asked whether Dr./Prof. (Name) should be promoted to the rank of LS-AAS IV at the University of Windsor. You are also not being asked to indicate if Dr./Prof. (Name) would be promoted to the rank of LS-AAS IV at your institution. Comments from these perspectives do not provide an evaluative perspective and thus may reduce the usefulness of the letter. We must make this assessment on the basis of the total record, not just on research, and on our own criteria and standards.

There are other key factors such as teaching performance and administrative contributions that will be considered in our decision. We will make this overall assessment on the basis of the candidate's total record, not just on research, and according to our criteria and standards. You are not asked to comment on these other areas outside of research unless you have direct familiarity with the candidate's performance.

If you agree to evaluate Dr./Prof.'s (Name) work, I shall need your written response by (date). Please also indicate if you prefer your evaluation to remain anonymous

We look forward to your reply.

On behalf of our RPP committee, thank you.

Sincerely,

AAU Head

Name of Applicant:

C. Committee's Overall Evaluation of Teaching Ability and Performance

Modify rubric to be appropriate for AAU

Evaluation Level	Description. These descriptions are only guidelines to understand the broad differences between evaluation levels. These descriptions are for illustration only, and not all may apply. AAU RTP/RPP committees may redefine this rubric as appropriate. (Note: normally Satisfactory is the threshold, but variations may be identified in the RTP Criteria)
Unsatisfactory	The candidate has performed well below normal expectations as outlined in the teaching criteria. The teaching methods and approaches employed may be inappropriate or inadequate for the intended learning outcomes. The relationship the candidate has established with students is poor and is detracting from effectively teaching the expected content. The candidate has demonstrated little or no initiative to improve teaching through additional training and/or mentorship opportunities, nor have they acted on meaningful feedback.
Satisfactory	The candidate has performed within the bounds of normal expectations as outlined in the teaching criteria. The teaching methods and approaches employed generally fulfil the intended learning outcomes. The candidate has a productive but not remarkable rapport with students. Lesser performance in one aspect (e.g., in class instruction) may be balanced by greater performance in another aspect related to teaching (e.g., student supervision). The candidate is aware of opportunities to improve teaching (e.g., workshops, etc.) but may have only participated in limited opportunities.
Good	The candidate has performed above normal expectations as outlined in the teaching criteria. The teaching methods and approaches employed fulfil the intended learning outcomes and has stimulated the interest or enthusiasm of students and others. The candidate has a productive rapport with students. Lesser performance in one aspect (e.g., in class instruction) may be balanced by significantly greater performance in another aspect related to teaching (e.g., student supervision).
Excellent	The candidate has performed significantly above normal expectations as outlined in the teaching criteria. The teaching methods and approaches employed fulfil the intended learning outcomes and has stimulated high levels of interest or enthusiasm by students and others. The candidate has a strong, productive rapport with students. The candidate may provide superior mentorship or assistance to students within the context of teaching.

Clearly state, provide an overall average and comment on how the applicant has performed with respect to specific AAU RTP/RPP criteria.

(The committee should designate a committee member other than the AAU head to complete the committee's agreed upon assessment of this section of the form, or the draft a statement together as a committee during the rating meeting)

C. Committee's Overall Evaluation of Service

Modify rubric to be appropriate for AAU

Evaluation Level	Description. These descriptions are only guidelines to understand the broad differences between evaluation levels. These descriptions are for illustration only, and not all may apply. AAU RTP/RPP committees should redefine this rubric as appropriate. (Note: normally Satisfactory is the threshold, but variations may be identified in the RTP Criteria)
Unsatisfactory	The candidate has performed well below normal expectations as outlined in the service criteria. The contributions from the candidate are minimal compared to what could be reasonably expected. Alternatively, they may have performed poorly to the point of being ineffective even with dedicated guidance or mentorship. The participation of the candidate is effective and their contributions are usually deemed significant. For example, the candidate may chair select committees that contribute to the operations of the program, departmental, faculty, or university activities (as appropriate to their level). The candidate undertakes notable activities that benefit their program, department, faculty, or university (e.g., promoting their program or discipline to the public or school students considering university). Lesser performance in one aspect (e.g., recruiting students) may be balanced by significantly greater performance in another aspect related to service (e.g., leading accreditation efforts). The candidate has engaged with the outside community or relevant societies, and helps to further their discipline (e.g., serving as an outside reviewer).
Excellent	The candidate has performed significantly above the normal expectations as outlined in the service criteria. For example, the candidate may chair multiple committees that contribute to the critical operations of the program, departmental, faculty, or university activities (as appropriate to their level).
