Reasons for Course Equivalency Substitution

The Senate policy states that course substitutions may be granted in exceptional circumstances. Note that when the original course requirement is available, course equivalencies are not to be granted.

Check one or more of the following:

- ☐ the required course is no longer offered
- ☐ the required course is not available to the student within the following three semesters
- ☐ the required course is not available to the student within a given semester and not permitting the course substitution would prevent the student's normal progression to graduation
- ☐ the required course is not available within a time period that includes the graduating semester
- ☐ Other - Specify:

Where the required course and the substitute course are offered by different departments, please confirm the following:

- ☐ I have consulted with the appropriate department regarding the proposed course equivalency substitution.
