

SESSIONAL POSTING

School of Social Work
Faculty of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences

Sessional/Overload Course Offerings

The School of Social Work intends to offer the following course(s) during the Fall Semester 2026. In accordance with Article 54 of the 2021-2027 Faculty Association Collective Agreement, the School of Social Work invites applications from qualified individuals interested in teaching the following course(s) during Fall 2026.

Fall 2026:

SWRK 8631-71, Challenges in Health and Aging (Fully Synchronous online)

Course dates include: November 6th and 7th; November 20th & 21st; and December 4th & 5th

This course examines how biological, psychological, and social theoretical perspectives differentially explain the etiology, occurrence, and response to challenges related to health and aging, including social determinants of health, physical illness, mental illness, substance abuse, economic adversity, and family and community connectedness. Specific attention is paid to the disparate experiences of Indigenous Peoples and equity-seeking groups such as Francophone communities, and African, Caribbean, and Black communities. Both the impact of these challenges and strategies responding to these challenges will be appraised and critically analyzed.

The successful candidate will have:

- (i) Appropriate education qualifications as normally evidenced by a Ph.D. (preferably in Social Work), or in a relevant discipline and a Master of Social Work degree from an accredited social work program and a minimum two years post-MSW experience
- (ii) Demonstrated teaching experience in online course delivery
- (iii) Record of successful teaching at the University level

Compensation:

Sessional rate of pay per R.1(b): Sessional Course Rates for Full semester Courses.

Fall 2026:

November 1, 2026 to December 31, 2026 - $9,794

The stipends are outlined in Article R.1 (b) of the current Collective Agreement with the Windsor University Faculty Association. The rates are inclusive of 4% vacation pay.

All Candidates should include the following (failure to include these items may affect the evaluation outcomes):

- A brief statement that explains how the following considerations prepare the applicant to teach this particular course:
 - Academic degrees
 - Graduate work
 - Teaching experience
 - Research and/or creative contributions
 - Professional experience and designations

- If relevant, the applicant may alternatively or additionally note their experience with Indigenous Knowledge Systems relevant to the subject matter of the course
- A previous syllabus or sample syllabus related to the subject matter of the advertised course
- A statement of teaching philosophy and interests (teaching dossier) as well as evidence of impact on student outcomes (which may include student feedback and ratings such as student perceptions of teaching or SPTs)

New Applications should also include the following:

- Letter of application, including statement of citizenship/immigration status
- A current curriculum vitae (for the Faculty Association template click here: <https://www.wufa.ca/article-131/schedule-a-curriculum-vitae-form>)
- Three current letters of reference sent directly by the referee to the email noted below
- Evidence of qualifications (e.g. certification of degrees, dissertation and thesis topic)
- A list of all university-level courses taught.

Candidates who have previously taught at the University in the past two (2) years (article 54:08 [a]) and have submitted their written statement of interest in teaching specific courses by March 1 annually shall be considered and need not submit a letter of application nor supply letters of recommendation (article 54:08 [b]).

The University of Windsor has implemented Conditional Access security requirements as part of our cybersecurity measures. Sessional Instructors are required to provide a bring-your-own device (BYOD) that meets these requirements.
