This online course is an introduction to statistics. Topics include measurement of variables, testing hypotheses, descriptive statistics, normal distribution, sampling, significance levels, and indicating appropriate quantitative analytical methods. Emphasis is given to how statistics can aid the social work practitioner. This course can also meet the statistics requirement for admission to the master's program.

The successful candidate will have:

- i. MSW from an accredited social work program
- ii. Minimum two years post-MSW experience
- iii. PhD in Social Work
- iv. Demonstrated teaching experience in statistics and online course delivery

Compensation:

Sessional rate of pay per R.1(b): Sessional Course Rates for Full semester Courses.

Interession:

May 1, 2026 to June 30, 2026 - $9,602

The stipends are outlined in Article R.1 (b) of the current Collective Agreement with the Windsor University Faculty Association. The rates are inclusive of 4% vacation pay.

All Candidates should include the following (failure to include these items may affect the evaluation outcomes):
