

Undergraduate Open Entrance Scholarship Deferral Request Form

University of Windsor

Student Awards & Financial Aid

If you have applied and been admitted to the University of Windsor and were granted a one-year admission deferral by the Admissions Office, you will automatically be considered for all University-sponsored open entrance scholarships and do not need to complete this form.

If you were not granted a deferral, did not attend another postsecondary institution during your gap year, and no more than one academic year has passed since your admission, please complete the sections below and submit the form to our office by January 31 of your first year of study.

PLEASE NOTE: Donor-sponsored awards and awards that are not considered under our automatic scholarship program cannot be deferred.

STUDENT STATUS

Please indicate which of the following applies to you:

You completed high school in January or June but did not apply for admission while still enrolled in high school.

You completed high school in January or June, applied for and received admission for the upcoming academic year, but did not enroll or formally defer your admission.

ACTION ITEMS (CHECK OFF EACH ITEM TO CONFIRM COMPLETION OF TASK)

I have read and understood the undergraduate open entrance scholarship deferral policy as outlined above.

I have attached a brief personal statement explaining the circumstances surrounding my request for deferral of my entrance scholarship(s), i.e. Why I did not attend University directly out of high school.

I confirm that I have not attended any other post-secondary institution between high school and my first year at the University of Windsor.

I have attached documents in support of my request and I confirm that:

- 1) The information pertained in the documents is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
- 2) I understand that an incomplete deferral request form will not be considered.
- 3) I understand that submission of this request does not guarantee approval.

Submit statement and supporting documents to stdawdadmin@uwindsor.ca.
