

ROSE CITY VARIATIONS

Windsor Canadian Music Festival

in/fuse 06 — EIL

Lambton Tower, Studio A Thursday, January 31, 2008 at 7:00 pm

Founded in 2003, the Electric Improv Lab (EIL) is a chamber ensemble incorporating electronic instruments and sound processing in their improvised musical creations. Led by Brent Lee of the School of Music, the Electric Improv Lab with guests Andrew Staniland (guitar and laptop) and Sigi Torinus (video) perform Rose City Variations, an improvisational work incorporating Windsor soundscapes. FREE admission.
