feeling deeply

extended call for art submissions

we are extending submissions for art pieces

This call for art is an invitation to submit an art piece that represents a feeling associated with experiencing gender-based violence (from the perspective of survivorship, supporting survivors, witnessing or being a pro-social bystander).

Submissions are open for art pieces about:

- healing
- hope for a future without gender-based violence
- gratitude towards those who support us
- care for survivors of sexual violence
