

feeling deeply

call for submissions to the feeling deeply art installation at the 2026 #IAmSahraBulle Conference

description & purpose

feeling deeply is an art and craft installation and social space to be displayed during the 2026 #IAmSahraBulle conference, facilitated by the Office of Sexual Violence Prevention, Resistance, and Support.

This installation aims to showcase the wide variety of emotions experienced in connection with gender-based violence (from the perspective of the survivor, supporter, bystander, or witness).

eligibility

Submissions are open to students, staff, faculty, and community members.

Examples of the type of work we are looking for (non-exhaustive list):

- Paintings
- Collage
- Photography
- Sculpture
- Poetry
- Cross stitch or embroidery
- Knitting or crochet
- Quilting

Art and crafts must fit into the theme of 'feeling deeply' via the portrayal of a feeling associated with experiences of gender-based violence (from the perspective of the survivor, supporter, bystander, or witness):

- Anger
- Sadness
- Disgust
- Joy (ex. finding joy in healing from trauma, joy in connecting with community)
- Hope (ex. for your healing journey, for a future safe relationship, for a future without gender-based violence)
- or other feelings
