feeling deeply art & activism workshop

make art workshop with Prevent Resist Support and Dr. Maddie Brockbank

Thursday, November 5th 2026 from 5:00 - 8:00pm

On the main campus of UWindsor, location shared after registration.

workshop description

This workshop explores the power of arts-based methods in facilitating and mobilizing community-based activism against gender-based and sexual violence. Participants will learn about trauma-informed approaches to arts-based interventions and its impacts on community-building.

Participants are invited to create art during the workshop that will be displayed at the #IAmSahraBulle conference gallery in November. Refreshments and art supplies will be provided!

eligibility

This workshop is open to all students, staff, and faculty at the University of Windsor.

register for the workshop

Register via CTL at https://ctl2.uwindsor.ca/workshops/133/

submit to the installation

via Google Form by October 28 2026
Email Anne (arudzins@uwindsor.ca) with any questions.